But with the Ganges open to us, and troops arriving every day, there does not seem real cause for alarm in this quarter. India, having absorbed the body of the Chinese expedition, has now drawn in the head, and Lord Eight has followed his followers to Calcuta, briging all his staff and a welcome body of martines and other soldiers. His Lordship may possibly consider that, as in the absence of his forces he can so solding, he had better go where there is work to be done, or at least something to be seen; and no doubt at this juncture of unsurpassed difficulty and importance his timely aid and friendly counsels may be found of real value.

Such were the force against which General Havelock and his troops were to advance, under a July was, and in the very heart of Bindostan. On the 12th of July—after extraordinary exertions had been med to overtake the Fusileers shead—the whole column came up with the enemy of Futley pore, a town a coutt half way between a lishibad and Chwapore, where the rebels precented them selves in a good poil to with a weeke guns. We cannot attempt to express the sympathy which the calamity that has befailen those brave men will excite, not only in England, but wherever the tale of their gallantry and their misfortune shall be told. After having accomplished more twan could be expected of men, they have failen under the mysterious dispensation of Providence. It is with man, however, that we have to fight; and as these few hundred heroes have sufficed to overcome every obscace that the mutineers could oppose, and to defeat them wherever they attempted a stand, we trust that General Havelock may have been able in a few days to resome all march on Lucknow with recruited rasks, restored health and better fortune.

Interesting Statement of Dr. Hay, an American Missionary.

[From the Lundon times, sept. 16]

The Rev. Mr. Hay, the American missionary in India who escaped from Allababad, returned to Southamp on from Leaden on Saturday night. In London he had an in tryiew with Sir Caarles Trevelyan. The Chairman of the tryiew with Sir Caarles Trevelyan. The Chairman of the tryiew with Sir Caarles Trevelyan.

We have the following report from London with respect to the action of the company and the final disposition of the cable:—

The company have decided to take the cable out of the Nisgara and agamemnon forth with, and the British government have given them percuise on to store it in Figure 1.

Measures have been adopted by the company for raising as much as possible of the submerged cable, and the work is to be immediately commenced.

In order to confirm the various satisfactory reports from the ergueers and others engaged in the enterprise, which have been already published, the Directors of the company recently commissioned taree of the most eminent engineers in Regiand, namely, Mr. Foun, of the firm of Jour Penn & Son, Mr. Fleid, of Maudisey, Son & Field, and Mr. Lloyd. Chief Engineer of the steam decartment of the British Admirally, to make a thorough examination of the cable and all the appliances for submerging it, and is report the result with such recommendations for foure geddance as they might does necessary to the company with Mr. Everett, the chief engineer of the Niagara, performed the daty entrusted to them in the most thorough masser, and came to the unanimous conclusion that, with the substitution of a patent self adjusting oreas, (by which it is impossible that the eatle when playing out can be broken.) for that previously used, and some modification in the paying out machinery, there is no reason to doubt that the next attempt to lay the cable will be crowned with it sumphant success.

Another incident has also served to strengthen still foritset the cable whos playing out can be broken.) for that previously used, and some modification in the paying out machinery, there is no reason to doubt that the next attempt to lay the cable will be crowned with trumphant success.

Another incident has also served to strengthen still further the increased confidence which this report naturally established in the minds of the directors. A large engineering firm of high standing and great wealth, have expressed their readiness to undertake to lay the cable on the following conditions.—That for a stated price they will, with the aid of government vessels, take all the rouble and risk out of the hands of the company, and have the cable laid from freisend to Newfoundland by June or July next; or failing this, they will not only claim no recompense, but will pay the company the entire cost of the cable. In the event of the cable being laid before June, the stipulated price to be increased at so much a monit for each month gained. It is understood that this offer is a bond fide one, and that the firm in question stand ready to farmish undoubted accurity for the performance of the undertaking.

In regard to the report that the telegraphic communication between the Niagara and the abore was suspended for several hours prior to the broaking of the cable, we have an authoritative contradiction. It seems that for a abort time, the evening before the accident, the operator as the shore end of the line, thought it unnecessary, (having tothing to say,) to send any message to the sale, at the shore end of the line, thought it unnecessary, (having tothing to say,) to send any message to the sale of the cable for the projected telegraph line to India, the line had ceased to work; wateross a subsequent comparison of the records kept on shore and on the sale passwed conditions of the prints.

Printer of the projected telegraph line to India, the Indian Company would certainly not party with the necessary funds to go on with the negotiation. The Atlantic Company would certainly n

PANIC ON THE BOURSE—POSITION OF THE CREDIT MORILIEE—THE IMPERIAL CONFERENCE—A TELE-GRAPH ENTERPRISE—PIERS AND INCIDENTIAL OF THE From Paris we learn that a papic had grevalled on the Fronch Bourse. All scurities fell, but especially those of the Credit Mobilier.

It had been awarred, but contradicted that after the meeting of the Czer and Emperor at Stuteardt Lay would proceed to Paris, and be there joined by Queen Victoria. Paris letters are that Napoleon was very desirous of having such an interview, and that he would probably succeed in inducing the Emperor Alexander, at least, to visit the fullieries.

Another report, with regard to the meeting of the two Emperors, was that the diminution of their standing armies would be a principal exhibit of discounties.

Bordeaux and the United States. The concession is for forty years.

The Duke of Cambridge had visited the camp at Chalcas. A general improvement in the trade of Paris is reported; likewise further progress in the fall in the price of corn. An inundation had done some damage at Lyons, and heavy rains had damaged the crops on the Meure.

Fires were becoming alarmingly frequent in Paris. The Monitour office was dostroyed.

It is stated that an immense relegraph line is to be immediately constructed from Marsellies to Constantinople, by way of Corsica and the various islands of the Mediterranean.

Lowdon Mower Market, Fenday, Rept. 18.—The opening prices of consels this morning were 88% to 90 for money, and 90% to 90% for account, at which they remained for some time, and they recovered to 90 a 90% and 90% as 90%. Exchequer bills are lower, being 8s. to 4s. dis. Bank stock for the opening has been done at 318%. In the foreign securities the dealings have been trifling, with I tile alteration in quotations. Furkish six per cents, 14% a 98.

The railway market has become very flat, at lower quotations.

The rall way market has become very flat, at lower quotations.

The demand for money is very active both at the Bank of England and in Lombard street, and there is no prospect of any diminution until the release of the October dividends. The minimum rate at the Bank of England continues at 5% per cent, and busisess out of doors cannot be cone under that figure. The rate for loans on government securities on the Stock Exchange has advanced from 5 to 5% per cent. In some branches of trade there is a sensible degree of ligatiness which causes a good deal of complaint. The arrivals of the precious motal have been to a fair amount, several of the overdue abits from Australia having arrived, and most of their gold has been preceived and purchased by the Bank of England. With the heavy portion of the overland Australian mail, per Tamar, expected in the carly part of next month, a farther supply of £300,000 may be looked for Another feature which tands to strengthen this market is the more favorable advices from New York, amouncing the entire subsidence of the previous pank. The exports of specie have been moderate, but the steamer sailing from touthout £650,000 sterling, chiefly in silver.

The return from the Bank of England for the week sad-the steamer sailing from Sputhampton, on the 20th linet, will likely carry out about £680,000 steriling, chiefly in silver.

The return from the Bank of Engiand for the week ending the 12th of September gives the following results were compared with the previous week:—
Pablic deposits. £7,658,478 Increase. £571,164
Other deposits. £7,658,478 Increase. £571,164
Other deposits. £7,658,478 Increase. £571,164

Diorease. £2
Notes unemployed. £1,943,75 Increase. 302,062
Notes unemployed. £1,943,75 Increase. 129,805
The amount of notes in circuistion is £18,78,825, being a decrease of £374,018; and the stock of builton in both departments is £11,218,461, showing a decrease of £172,849 when compared with the preceding return.

The builton market has been somewhat dull this week, the position of public affairs in the East having affected the demand for that part of the world considerably. There have been large arrivals both from the West Incise and Australia, but they have principally been taken for continental acceunt. Doubloons have again been offered freely, and high rates paid:—

The weather for some days past has been very fine, and will enable farmers in the later districts to finish their barvest operations, which the late rains had much retarded.

The large supplies of English wheat at the country markets have caused some quicineas in the trade, but the lightness of our stocks maintains prices, especially for grod qualities; under arrivais, however, a deciline must be coned for.

On Tuesday wheat was slow at previous prices. Flour, from scarcity, 6d, per barrel dearer. Indian corn selling in retail at the raises of Friday.

At to-day's market there was a small attendance of buyers, and very little business done. Wheat was exceedingly slow of sale at nominally Tuesday's rates; in one or two instances a reduction of 2d, to 3d, was submitted to. A very choice parcel of new red from Charles-ned direct, brought 9c 6d. in retail, and a choice to per steamer from New York, 9c, to 9c, 4d, per 70 lbs. White neglected. Flour very scarce, and full prices saked for barrels. Indian corn meets a most limited retail sale at our quotations.

The defendant kept a junk shop and frequently bought wasie paper, &c., from newspaper boys; these articles were put into the old mail bags, and the deendant by his counsel, Mr. O'Rourke, contended that he had no knowledge of their being the property of the United States, that they remained on his pre mises and were not bought by him, nor did he intend them for sale. The United States District Autorney, Mr. McKeon, contended that the mail bags were the property of the United States; that there were over one hundred found in the possession of the defendant, and that no one but the United States authorities was entitled to them.

The Court instructed the jury that the offense will have been committed if the defendant apprepriated the mail own profit or convenience; that it was not necessary to prove that he made sale of the bags in order to convoid him of appropriating them in violation of the law, and that the fact of appro-rising them unlawfully might be inferred from the manner in which he received, kept and dealt with them. FRARFUL RAILWAY COLLISION.—We learn from the Rochester Democrat that a terrible celtision of icoomemotives happened on the 29 h uit, at Corning, resulting in great damage to property, and triory to several personanthe icoemctive for the Conbotton Railroad was fired u.5, and was moving on the track of the New York and Eric Road, heading wost, when the express train from the east came up. The fireman and engineer of the Ombotton leconotive jumped off, and it was struck with such feroe as to send it forward with great speed, and it is said to have travelled seventeen miles before being stopped. The New York and Eric locomotive was thrown off and upset, the head being driven late the earth; the baggage carwas literally broken to splinters; the baggageman was some what is jured, but not seriously. The first passenger car was driven forward and upward so as to rest upon the engine, and was badly shivered, and a newsboy is said to have had both legs broken. Some other persons were hurt, but we do not learn how seriously, or who they were. It is fortunate, and almost miraculous, that no lives were lost.

Industrial Exhibition—a Stitch in T.ME, &c.—A young lady passenger is one of the Mount Pleasant cars a day or two ago, came very man getting the hale of all the gentlemen, who noticed a singular and unexpected display of good sense and prudence on her part. On entering the car her dress caught, and was considerably tors, the remit precenting a vory subsubsome appearance in contrast with the exceeding neatness of her apparel. As soon as she was stated, she removed her kids, and diving into the recease of a timp pocket, brought out a needle and a bit of thread, after uniting which with most dexterous manipulation, has set to work to repair damages, and very soon spread out the folds of her robe as cumplete and whole as if no accident had ever occurred. The materials of industry were then redeposited in their resting place, and the lady assumed her kids and an attitude of repose, smiling triumphantly.—Boston Courier.
